

Citizens Bank & Trust Elects Spencer T. Cohn as New Board Member

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (June 17th, 2019) – Citizens Bank & Trust announces a new member in its Board of Directors.

Spencer T. Cohn has been elected to the boards of Citizens Bank & Trust, and its holding company. Roger M. Arwood, chief executive officer of Citizens said, “Spencer Cohn is a skillful financial executive who will add innovation and energy in our boardroom. We are fortunate to now add the expertise Spencer brings to Citizens in our quest of helping clients and other stakeholders succeed financially.”

Cohn is the vice president of Castle Creek Capital where he began in 2014. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Cohn worked at Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. as an Investment Banking Associate in the Financial Institutions Group. At KBW, he concentrated on mergers and acquisitions including bankruptcy structures, recapitalizations and restructurings, and capital markets transactions.

Mr. Cohn is a Director of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and serves as Co-Chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation’s Tomorrow’s Leaders program (San Diego and Imperial Counties Chapter).

Mr. Cohn holds dual Bachelor of Science degrees in Finance and Accountancy from The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and is a graduate candidate of the ABA Stonier Graduate School of Banking at The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

###

Founded in 1889, Citizens Bank & Trust is the seventh largest bank headquartered in Kansas City, MO. Citizens is locally owned and managed and offers services for personal, private, and commercial banking. Banking centers located throughout Northwest and Central Missouri, including Kansas City and St. Joseph, along with easy-to-access mobile apps and online tools make banking flexible and convenient. Citizens is committed to its communities to offer education and support that accelerates financial understanding and success. Learn more about the Financial Education program at www.GoCitizens.bank/education.php.